

Position Description ABA President-elect

Function

The President-elect ensures the orderly transition of Board leadership. The President-elect must be familiar with the Board's various projects and the work of its committees in the event that he or she must take over the duties of the President unexpectedly. He or she becomes President in the event that the President resigns or the position of President otherwise becomes vacant. He or she then serves the former President's unexpired term, as well as the full term he or she was elected to. The President-elect acts in the absence of the President as chairperson of the Board of Trustees, works closely with the President to ensure continuity of leadership, supports the efforts of the President and learns the duties of the President's office.

Duties & Responsibilities

Specific to President-Elect:

- Assume the office of President when the current President's term expires.
- Perform the duties of the office of President whenever the President is unable to do so and fill the unexpired term of the President when required.
- Serve as a member of the Bylaws Committee.
- Provide for an orderly transition in leadership by becoming familiar with Association's functional and program areas and activities as well as the duties and responsibilities of the office of President.
- Attend all Board meetings and support other Association functions.
- Support, represent, and communicate strategic plan elements to others and promote Association membership.
- Preside at all meetings of the Board and Executive Committee when the President is unable to participate.
- Serve as the official representative and spokesperson for the Association when the President is unable or designates the President-elect to serve in this role.
- Performs other duties and responsibilities assigned by the President or Executive Committee.

Responsibilities of all members of the Board:

- The Board of Trustees determines strategic goals and direction and provides guidance to the Executive Director for management of the Association. The Board of Trustees also approves the Association's strategic plan, annual operating plan and budget; monitors the Association's financial health; oversees programs and overall performance; and provides the Executive Director with the resources needed to carry out the Association's work plan. Each Board member has one vote on matters before the Board.
- The Board shall take no action which conflicts with the Mission of the Association. The Board shall be responsible for the general oversight of the Association's resources, including funds awarded to the Association to support research and other professional activities.
- Board members must adhere to the fiduciary obligations including the legally mandated duties of care, loyalty, and obedience.
- All board members are assigned to serve as board liaison to one to three ABA committees. In this role, they are expected to attend committee conference calls and in person meetings, share committee activities with the Board, and provide the committee with information on what is happening at the Board level. Board liaisons, who are not appointed as regular committee members, are not expected to fully participate in committee activities, such as developing content, their role is to facilitate two-way communication and information sharing.

Term

One year as President-elect. This is followed by one year as President and subsequently by two years as a Past President member of the Board of Trustees.

Commitment

All Board members are required to attend four Board meetings per year. At least one is during the Annual Meeting and one is at the National Leadership Conference. Attendance during the Annual Meeting is at the expense of the individual. For the Board meeting during the Annual Meeting Board members are expected to pay for travel as they would be expected to attend the NLC, but the ABA will pay for one hotel night. There may be one to two additional in person Board meetings that the ABA would reimburse for attendance expenses. Additional Board meetings may be held virtually as determined by the President, Executive Committee and Executive Director.

Except for the Annual Meeting and the Business Meeting, the Board authorizes any Trustee not physically present at a meeting to participate in a meeting using remote communication, and such Trustees may be considered present in person and may vote at the meeting, whether held at a designated place or solely with remote communication, subject to the conditions imposed by law. The Board may determine that a meeting may be held solely with or without remote communication.

In addition, Executive Committee members are required to participate in Executive Committee calls which are held approximately monthly.

Qualifications

Minimum qualifications per the Bylaws:

- (a) be a professional in a burn-related field for no less than ten years; and
- (b) have demonstrated leadership abilities; and
- (c) have been and are currently active members of the Association for no less than ten years prior to their term of office.
- (d) President-Elect must have served at least a two-year term on the Board of Trustees prior to assuming the role of President-Elect.

Additional qualifications:

- Ability to think strategically and analytically and to effectively communicate ideas and the supporting rationales.
- Possession of earned respect of ABA members and others in the field.
- Ability to work well as a member of a collaborative group with group decision-making authority and an understanding of the fiduciary duties of loyalty, care, and obedience.
- Appreciation for the differences between “oversight” and “supervision”.
- Earned reputation for emotional maturity, personal integrity, and honesty.
- Familiarity with the body of knowledge related to both the ABA as an organization as well as the substantive content of the field of burn care.
- Prerequisite of accessibility and responsiveness.
- Absence of significant conflicts of interest.

Selection

The position shall be elected by the membership from a slate of candidates developed by the Nominating Committee in accordance with the policy established by the Board. The following year, the President-elect automatically ascends to the position of President at the close of the Annual Business Meeting.

Board approved 2/5/20