

Amps to Zap

D IS FOR DROWNING

Electric shock drowning occurs when electric current from damaged wiring in the marina, or from boats that are connected to the dock's power supply, travels through the water. This electric current can cause nearby swimmers to become incapacitated and drown.

#NBAW

National Burn Awareness Week

FEBRUARY 7-13, 2021

A yellow warning sign with a black border and a black lightning bolt symbol in a triangle at the top. The sign is tilted and attached to a wooden post. The text on the sign reads 'DANGER' in large, bold, black letters, followed by 'Electric shock risk' in a smaller, black font.

DANGER
Electric shock risk