Merging Science, Business & Leadership Skills

The Burn Surgeon Forum is a two-day event, providing a program to address the needs of surgeons to help them succeed as leaders of their burn care teams and to advance burn care in a dynamic and challenging healthcare climate.

This new program is designed specifically for burn surgeons and will cover innovative ideas and new material in the biology of burns. The program will also highlight the economics of leading and running a burn center and their role as a business and scientific leader.
